

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is merely modern propaganda. This type of reckless decision making to air such partisan attacks erodes the integrity of the entire broadcast system, not to mention the democratic process.

The long term effects of Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air this anti-Kerry documentary (and I use the term "documentary" loosely) will continue to divide our nation and is far from being in the public's best interest. Sinclair Broadcasting needs to be reminded that the public's best interest is in reporting factual and relevant information. Using the free airwaves to promote their own agenda is careless and immature. I would add that a documentary of George W. Bush's years from 1975-1985, though interesting, would also be reckless and irrelevant. Please do not allow Sinclair to air such propaganda. Thank you.
